Registration
Registration includes access to all scientific sessions, including satellite symposia, the exhibition area, refreshments and lunch for the days specified in your registration acknowledgement correspondence.

Delegate badges
Badges must be worn at all times to gain access to the lecture theatre, catering and exhibition areas.

Accompanying persons: pre-booked and paid only
Accompanying persons’ fees include attendance at the Welcome Reception and Gala Dinner. Each event is individually priced. These tickets must have been requested and paid for in advance of the conference. Please note that these fees do not cover attendance at the scientific sessions, exhibition or catering areas of the conference.

BHIVA Lunchtime Workshops
The BHIVA Lunchtime Workshops will be held in Tregonwell Seminar Rooms 1 & 2, which are each limited to 100 delegates. Doors will open 15 minutes prior to these workshops and places are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Each workshop will begin promptly. No lunch packs will be provided for delegates attending workshops, lunch will be available in the Exhibition Hall for the full duration of the lunch period.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)
Medical staff in career grade posts who are enrolled with one of the Royal Medical Colleges for Continuing Professional Development will be entitled to receive CPD credits at the rate of one CPD credit per conference hour (exclusive of travel, refreshments, pharmaceutical-supported sessions and social events). The unique reference code for the conference is 122819. The entire conference has been allocated 20 CPD credits. Please be advised that the attendance list of the conference will be forwarded to the Royal College of Physicians upon request.

Social events
There are two social events: a Welcome Reception (Wednesday) to be held at BIC and a Gala Dinner (Thursday) to be held at The Hilton Bournemouth Hotel. Tickets are required to gain entry to the Gala Dinner. Please refer to page 15 of this programme for full details of the social events. If you have reserved a ticket but find that you cannot attend, please let the Conference Organiser know as soon as possible and return your ticket to the Registration Desk at your earliest convenience.

Poster presentations
All poster boards will be numbered and poster presenters should use the board displaying the number allocated to their poster. The poster judges will review the posters and subsequently select 15 posters to be highly commended, out of which six will be presented as part of the Poster Presentations session at 1200–1230 on Friday 5 April. Poster presenters are required to prepare a few slides prior to the conference to highlight the main points of their poster. We would encourage all poster presenters to check the Registration notice board at 1830 on Thursday 4 April to see whether they have been selected. The BHIVA Ian Williams Best Poster prize will be awarded at the Prizes and Awards Ceremony on Friday 5 April at 1430-1445.

Oral research presentations
Oral research presenters are reminded to ensure they bring their oral research presentation slides to the conference in addition to sending them to the Conference Organisers in advance. Any slides must be passed to the audio-visual technicians in the Speakers’ Preview Room located in the Westbourne Suite, Ground Floor in good time for their session (minimum 3 hours in advance). Oral research presenters may make use of the Speakers’ Preview Room to review their slides prior to presentation. The BHIVA Margaret Johnson Best Oral Presentation prize will be awarded at the Prizes and Awards Ceremony on Friday 5 April at 1430-1445.
Accommodation
Please note that the registration fee does not include accommodation. If you have not already arranged accommodation you can do so by referring to the conference website for further details.

WiFi
Free WiFi access is available throughout the conference venue.

Cloakroom
A manned cloakroom is available onsite at BIC. All belongings are left at the owner’s risk. The British HIV Association does not accept responsibility for the loss of, or damage to, delegates' personal property stored in the cloakroom area.

Exhibition
The exhibition represents an integral element of the conference, providing participants with an excellent platform for networking as well as an opportunity to gain further insight into cutting-edge technology, the latest healthcare solutions, and services within the field of HIV and GU medicine. Entrance to the exhibition hall is free for all registered delegates.

Filming and photography
Please note that all sessions held in the lecture theatre (Tregonwell Hall) will be filmed and uploaded to the BHIVA website following the event.
In addition, some still photography will take place at the conference. This will include general coverage of registration, exhibition and workshop areas, as well as conference social events. This material may be published in BHIVA publications or on the BHIVA website and on BHIVA’s social media pages.

BHIVA Conferences App
BHIVA have developed a conference app which is downloadable from App Store for iPhone users or Playstore for Android devices. The app will provide users with the following facilities:
- Test the Chair (note all questions will be moderated).
- Voting for the BHIVA case presentation workshops.
- Information on the conference programme speakers, sponsors and exhibitors.
- Ability to complete the Conference Evaluation Questionnaire via the app.

Plenary session biographies

BHIVA Chair

Prof Chloe Orkin, Barts Health NHS Trust

Prof Chloe Orkin is the current Chair of the British HIV Association (2016-2019). She graduated from the University of the Witwatersrand in Johannesburg in 1995 and completed her specialist training at the Chelsea and Westminster hospital. She was appointed Consultant HIV Physician at the Royal London Hospital in 2003 where she leads the busy HIV and HIV/HCV clinical trials unit. Her clinical interests are: Anti-retroviral therapy and hepatitis co-infection. In 2015 she ran the first UK-based blood-borne virus testing week 'Going Viral' and is researching ways of implementing blood-borne virus testing. She has co-authored four British HIV Association guidelines on: Anti-retroviral therapy, Hepatitis, Malignancy and Routine Monitoring.

BHIVA Conference Sub-committee Chair

Dr Laura Waters, Mortimer Market Centre

Laura Waters is a GU/HIV consultant and HIV & hepatitis lead at CNWL’s Mortimer Market Centre, London. She works predominantly in HIV and viral hepatitis outpatients. Laura previously worked in clinical trials at Chelsea & Westminster and Brighton, gaining an MD on ART switch and is currently principle or chief investigator on several antiretroviral trials. She is chair of the BHIVA treatment guidelines, chair of the BHIVA conferences sub-committee and on the BHIVA executive committee. She has published and presented widely, is a regular columnist for Boyz magazine, is a THT trustee and chair of the Halvet campaign.

Prof Jane Anderson, Homerton University Hospital

Prof Jane Anderson is Co-Chair of the London HIV Fast-Track Cities Leadership Group and IAPAC’s representative in London. She is a consultant physician in HIV Medicine at Homerton University Hospital NHS Foundation Trust where her work focuses on ethnic minority and migrant populations in relation to HIV with a particular focus on care for women and families. She holds honorary academic appointments at Barts and the London School of Medicine and Dentistry and at University College London. Jane is Chair of the National AIDS Trust and a past Chair of the British HIV Association.

Mr Bertrand Audoin, IAPAC

Bertrand is Vice-President of the International Association of Providers of AIDS Care (IAPAC). With more than 20,000 members worldwide, IAPAC is a pioneer organization of clinicians, doctors, nurses, gynecologists and others, providing technical support to its members and lobbying for systematic inclusion of clinicians in all HIV programs. Bertrand has been working in the HIV field for almost 20 years, and first became involved in the response to the epidemic at grass roots level in the early 1990s. While working at the Alliance Française in Auckland, New Zealand, Bertrand was motivated to volunteer in HIV prevention programmes in Auckland’s gay community by the disastrous consequences that he saw the epidemic was having on the family, work and social lives of men and women living with HIV in the local area.

Dr Triston Barber, Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust

Dr Triston Barber is a Consultant in HIV at the Royal Free Hospital. He has a research background in phase 3 drug trials, HIV vaccine studies and HIV related neurocognitive impairment. He is currently Chair of both the BASHH HIV/BBV Specialist Interest Group and the BHIVA International Partnerships Working Group.

Dr Amanda Clarke, Royal Sussex County Hospital

Dr Clarke qualified from Southampton University and completed specialist HIV/GUM training at Guy’s and St Thomas’s Hospitals. She then worked in HIV and clinical trials in Vietnam and Thailand. She has been Consultant in HIV/GUM and Clinical Trials at Royal Sussex County Hospital since 2012 and is currently HIV Lead. She enjoys clinical research in HIV and Sexual Health and publications include topics such as new HIV drugs, different treatment strategies and HIV prevention.

Mr Simon Collins HIV i-Base

Simon Collins is an HIV positive treatment advocate who co-founded HIV i-Base in 2000 (www.i-base.info). He edits HIV Treatment Bulletin (HTB) and non-technical treatment guides. He is also involved with various community networks including the UK-CAB and has been a community representative on several research studies.

Dr Hilary Curtis, BHIVA Audit Coordinator

Hilary Curtis originally trained as a scientist and has worked in HIV/AIDs since the 1980s. She has co-ordinated BHIVA’s clinical audit programme since its inception in 2001.

Samantha Dawson, Body Positive, Dorset

Samantha has been living with HIV for 11 years. Her diagnosis was a huge shock and changed her life hugely. She found it hard going at the beginning but through peer support she managed to find a way to live her life with HIV not defining who she is, but instead being the start of a new career.

Samantha is now the manager of a local charity called Body Positive Dorset and despite the admin side of work she enjoys her job immensely. It has provided her with a platform to be able to facilitate education sessions in a variety of settings and become an advocate for her peers.

Dr Valerie Delpech, Public Health England

Valerie Delpech is a Medical Epidemiologist based at Public Health England and leads a team of scientists and data managers to monitor the HIV epidemic and quality of care people living with HIV receive in the United Kingdom. Valerie’s research interests focus on better understanding the epidemiology of HIV and STIs, and public health interventions to prevent these infections particularly among vulnerable populations. She serves on a number of national and international committees in relation to HIV public health monitoring, prevention and policy development and is an executive trustee for the National AIDS Trust.

Dr Michael Emerson, Imperial College London

Dr Mike Emerson is a Cardiovascular Pharmacologist and Head of the Platelet Biology Group, National Heart and Lung Institute, Imperial College London. Dr Emerson’s research focusses on the physiological regulation of platelets by endothelial mediators and gasotransmitters. He also studies mechanisms of cardiovascular risk in the contexts of ambient air pollution and HIV/antiretroviral therapy. His team was involved in identifying diesel exhaust particles as drivers of platelet-driven cardiovascular events. Dr Emerson works in collaboration with HIV clinicians at Chelsea and Westminster Hospital to investigate the impact of antiretrovirals on platelets and endothelial cells to better understand HIV-associated cardiovascular risk.

Eli Fitzgerald, CHIVA

Eli Fitzgerald is a 20 year old queer trans man from South West England. Eli has grown up with HIV and does not live openly with HIV, and asks that the conference delegates respect this. Eli is a former CHIVA Youth Committee member and attended the International AIDS Conference 2018 as part of the CHIVA delegation. Eli participated in the development of two useful CHIVA resources; the ‘Treat Me Like This’ Clinical Guidelines (https://www.chiva.org.uk/guidelines/treat-me/), and the ‘HIV in Schools’ Guidance (https://www.chiva.org.uk/resources/guidance-schools/). In his free time Eli is a LGBTQ+ Activist on his twitter (@positive_trans) and freelance graphic designer.

Dr Claire Fuller, Chelsea & Westminster Hospital

Claire Fuller has been a dermatologist since 1992. She was appointed to her first NHS Consultant post at Kings College Hospital in 1997, and in 2007 she moved to East Kent Hospitals’ NHS trust returning to her childhood home. Her undergraduate training was at Cambridge and St Thomas’ with subsequent dermatology training at Guy’s and Kings. During her time at Kings Dr Fuller set up a Vulval Dermatoses service and has continued on with this subspecialty. As a general and paediatric dermatologist working in cosmopolitan parts of South London and now in Kent, she has developed extensive experience in Afro Caribbean skin disease. Dr Fuller has particular interests in infectious dermatoses as well as dermatoses in the tropics.

Dr Nadi Gupta, Rotherham NHS Foundation Trust

Nadi Gupta is currently the Clinical Lead of the Integrated Sexual Health and HIV service at Rotherham Hospital and an Honorary Senior Clinical Lecturer (University of Sheffield). She is a member of the BHIVA Executive Committee and the BHIVA guidelines subcommittee. She has an interest in women’s health and use of hormonal contraception in women living with HIV.

Prof James Hargreaves, London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine

James Hargreaves is Professor of Epidemiology and Evaluation at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine (LSHTM). He was the founding Director of the LSHTM Centre for Evaluation, and is Director of the international MeSH Consortium. He has published more than 120 scientific articles and book chapters on subjects including HIV prevention, adolescent health, family planning, tuberculosis control, school-based deworming, the health benefits of general school education, prevention of intimate partner violence, social welfare programmes, health inequalities, HIV stigma, medical male circumcision and the HIV prevention cascade framework.

Ms Bakita Kasadha, CHIVA

Bakita Kasadha is a board member on the Global Network of Young People Living with HIV and also holds different associate/consultant roles on a range of HIV projects, including as an Associate at the Children’s HIV Association. Outside of HIV activism, Bakita is a workshop facilitator, writer and poet and is currently studying a masters in anthropology and community development.
Dr Ming Lee, Guy’s and St Thomas’ NHS Foundation Trust
Ming is a Genitourinary and HIV Registrar at Guy’s and St Thomas Hospital. His professional interests include understanding the development and prevention of non-AIDS related co-morbidities in people living with HIV, promotion of living and aging well with HIV, and HIV prevention in at-risk populations eg. men who have sex with men.

Dr Tom Levett, Brighton and Sussex University Hospitals NHS Trust
Dr Tom Levett is a Senior Lecturer in Medicine and Frailty at Brighton and Sussex Medical School and Honorary Consultant Geriatrician at Brighton & Sussex University Hospitals. He has a research interest in issues of HIV and ageing, particularly frailty and frailty syndromes. He completed a PhD investigating the prevalence and predictors of frailty in older adults living with HIV in 2017. He continues to research the topic as well as supervising research in non-infectious comorbidities in PLWH. He also contributes clinically to the Silver Clinic, a joint HIV-ageing clinic that runs within the Lawson Unit in Brighton.

Prof Sebastian Lucas, St Thomas’ Hospital
Sebastian Lucas has been working on HIV/AIDS since the early 1980s, studying the pathology of the disease in the UK and Africa. He ceased formal employment in 2017, but continues to practice, advise on diagnostic problems, and write on new aspects of HIV disease. The autopsy has been the most important means for learning about what HIV does to people, and how it reflects both the changing and the unchanging clinico-pathological epidemiology of HIV infection.

Dr Larissa Mulka, Brighton and Sussex Medical School
Larissa Mulka is an ST5 trainee in Sexual Health and HIV in Brighton, having previously worked in Sexual Health at King’s and St Mary’s Hospitals. She is currently in the final stages of writing up her PhD exploring the use of phylogenetics for public health purposes in HIV.

Dr Sarah Pett, MRC Clinical Trials Unit at UCL
Dr Sarah Pett is an Infectious Diseases physician and clinical trialist based at the Medical Research Council Clinical Trials Unit, Institute for Clinical Trials and Methodology and the Institute for Global Health, University College London, UK. She also holds an Honorary appointment at the Kirby Institute, University of New South Wales, Australia. Her research interests including treatment optimisation for HIV and Hepatitis C, long-term complications of HIV, and immunotherapies and novel treatments for influenza.

Dr Iain Reeves, Homerton University Hospital
Dr Iain Reeves has been a consultant in London for over 10 years and is lead clinician for HIV at the Homerton Hospital. He is also lead for the NE London and Essex HIV Clinical Network and an elected trustee of BHIVA. He has special interests in the sexual health of MSM and in mental health and is a principal investigator on a number of HIV and sexual health studies. Dr Reeves is Vice Chair of the BHIVA Conferences Subcommittee, part of the BHIVA Treatment Guidelines Writing Group and led on three sections of the recent BHIVA clinical standards. He was re-elected as a BHIVA trustee to serve on the Executive Committee from 2018–2021.

Mr Bruce Richman, Prevention Access Campaign, USA
Bruce Richman is the executive director of Prevention Access Campaign’s Undetectable = Untransmittable (U=U), a growing international movement to share the revolutionary but largely unknown fact that people living with HIV on treatment with an undetectable viral load cannot transmit HIV to sexual partners. After recognizing that millions of people with HIV and the public were not being informed about this ground-breaking science, he joined with activists and researchers to ensure the science reaches the people it was intended to benefit. Bruce received his Ed.M from Harvard Graduate School of Education and his JD from Harvard Law School.

Dr Nadine Seward, King’s College London
Nadine Seward is a Lecturer in Global Implementation Science, based within the Centre for Implementation Science at KCL and holds an MSC (Epidemiology) from LSHTM and a PhD (Epidemiology) from UCL. Prior to starting at KCL in August 2018, she worked at LSHTM on cluster randomised trials that aimed to improve maternal and newborn health outcomes where her interests were also focused on using causal mediation analyses and other techniques to evaluate the “how and why” behind the effectiveness of different complex interventions. Before LSHTM, Nadine worked at UCL, Institute of Global Health, on cluster randomised trials that involved women’s groups using participatory learning and action, to improve maternal and newborn health outcomes. Currently, Nadine is working with the NIHR Global Health Research Unit on Health System Strengthening in Sub-Saharan Africa (ASSET) to improve the quality of integrated primary health care, surgical and maternal and newborn with the different partners and across different care platforms. This project is aiming to use implementation science methodology to evaluate practical ways to improve the quality and coverage of care in low and middle income countries.

Dr Lion Shahab, University College London
Dr Shahab is an Associate Professor in Health Psychology at University College London and trained in psychology, epidemiology and neuroscience. He has more than 12 years’ experience in addiction research, tobacco control and health psychology with a particular interest in novel behavioural and pharmacological smoking cessation interventions, biomarkers, tobacco product regulation and policy, digital health and tobacco and alcohol use epidemiology. Dr Shahab has collaborated with academic as well as non-academic (e.g. governmental and non-governmental) partners and to date has authored over 100 scientific papers, reports and reviews in this area.

Ms Kat Smithson, National AIDS Trust
Kat Smithson is Director of Policy and Campaigns at NAT (National AIDS Trust) where she has worked since 2014. Amongst other areas, Kat has led projects and advocacy at NAT around HIV prevention and testing services, sexual health service commissioning, and on issues relating to combatting HIV stigma.

Ms Winnie Sseruma, Freelance International Development Consultant
Winnie Ssanyu Sseruma is a freelance International Development Consultant based in London, UK. She works on HIV and community health advocacy, focusing on Black communities in the UK and Sub-Saharan Africa. For the last five years, she has also been monitoring and assessing HIV community and social projects in fifteen countries in the Sub Saharan region, for the Stephen Lewis Foundation which is based in Toronto, Canada. Winnie was born in Sheffield, UK, grew up in Uganda and went to university at St. Mary University in Kansas, USA. She has been living with HIV for 30 years.

Dr Andrew Ustianowski, North Manchester General Hospital
Andrew Ustianowski is a consultant physician in Infectious Diseases and research lead at the North Western Regional Infection Unit, North Manchester General Hospital, UK, which is one of the largest treatment centres for blood-borne viruses in the UK. He is part of several national and international educational steering groups, has been chair of the British Viral Hepatitis Group, part of guideline writing committees for the British HIV Association & other bodies, and lectures widely on HIV & related topics. He was previously on the NHS England Infectious Diseases Clinical Reference Group (CRG) and remains the clinical lead for the national ID service review. He conceived and remains the clinical lead for the Greater Manchester Hepatitis C Elimination Programme. He graduated from Guy’s Hospital, London, and subsequently trained in Infectious Diseases, Tropical Medicine, HIV and General Medicine in the London region.

Dr Catriona Waitt, University of Liverpool
Catriona Waitt is a Senior Lecturer in Clinical Pharmacology at the University of Liverpool and a Wellcome Clinical Postdoctoral Fellow. Her research portfolio surrounds the safe and effective use of medications in special and vulnerable populations, in particular pregnant and breastfeeding women and their infants. For the past three years she has been based at the Infectious Diseases Institute in Kampala, Uganda.

Prof Matthew Weait, University of Portsmouth
Matthew is Professor of Law and Society and Executive Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences at the University of Portsmouth. His research centres on the impact of criminal law on HIV prevention and on people living with HIV and AIDS. He has worked with a number international organisations including the European AIDS Treatment Group, UNAIDS, and the Global Commission on HIV and Law. His recent work explores the effects of biomedical advances in treatment and prevention on criminal liability. Matthew was made a Fellow of the Academy of Social Sciences in 2017.
