BHIVA World AIDS Day Event
“Voices and visibility”
A multi-media exploration of HIV through speech, drama, music and film

1745-2045, Friday 29 November 2019
One Birdcage Walk, Westminster, London

1745-1815 Welcome drinks and canapes
1825-1830 Welcome by hosts
Dr Duncan Churchill, Royal Sussex County Hospital, Brighton
Dr Rageshri Dhairyawan, Barts Health NHS Trust, London

1830-1840 Introduction
Lord The Rt Hon. The Lord Fowler
Jonathan Blake, HIV Activist and actor

1840-1850 The Joyful Noise Choir

1850-1905 Anita Sullivan: Invisible Undetectable Playwright. Appearing for one night only.

1905-1925 Straight Talk: Thoughts from heterosexual HIV+ Men
Och Sandhu, Phil Whelan and Bryan Dramiga

1925-1950 Catwalk4Power:
A collective of creative women, share their fashion, poetry and drama

1950-2010 Trans Visibility Systemic Silence:
a top down or bottom-up approach
Michelle Ross and friends from CliniQ

2010-2035 Tomorrow (film, 2019): Stuart Brennan and Sebastian Street -
Co-writers and stars of this film, directed by Martha Pinson and executive produced by Martin Scorsese, talk about why they linked a war veteran suffering with PTSD with a man living with HIV
The film tells how a war veteran struggling to find a reason to live is befriended by a man who lives each day as if it is his last.

2035-2045 The Joyful Noise Choir