“We have failed to translate our scientific progress into action where it is most needed in the communities of the poorest regions of the world.”

Lessons from the South

• 8 year old girl

• Diagnosed at 3/12 - pneumonia candida

• Commenced on Triomune

• Moves to Europe.........
Simultaneously

- New antimalarials

- Yellow, liquorice flavor, foil packed

- “We don’t like them!”
• Where there are no drugs
Nodding Syndrome
Facts About EBOLA

What is Ebola?

- Ebola is a killer disease, which presents with high fever and bleeding tendencies. Sometimes it may present with more non-specific symptoms like in the Bundibugyo epidemic.
- It is very infectious, kills in a short time BUT can be prevented. (See below)

What are the signs and symptoms of Ebola in the epidemic in Bund?

- Fever
- Vomiting
- Diarrhea
The Hero’s Journey

- Call to Adventure
- Supernatural Aid
- Threshold Guardian(s)
- (Gift of the Goddess)
- Return

- Threshold (beginning of transformation)
- Known
- Unknown

- Atonement
- Transformation
- REVELATION
- Abyss
- Challenges and Temptations

- Mentor
- Helper
The Hero with a Thousand Faces (Bollingen Series XVII): Joseph Campbell: Amazon.com: Books

Joseph Campbell

THE HERO WITH A THOUSAND FACES

The Hero with a Thousand Faces

Classic work by American mythologist Joseph Campbell. Campbell explored the common elements in hero myths from around the world, identifying a pattern he called the monomyth, or the universal hero's journey. This book outlines some of the archetypal patterns that Campbell recognized in various cultures and traditions, providing insights into the universal human experience of heroism and personal transformation.